PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a versatile professional with a background spanning technology, construction, maritime work, athletics, and small-business operations. Raised in Atlanta, I developed early leadership and discipline as an Eagle Scout, varsity football team captain, and first-chair jazz musician, including a televised performance on FOX 5 Atlanta.

Throughout my career, I have taken on practical, hands-on roles—working as a computer technician, fisherman, construction laborer, and service professional—building a reputation for reliability, adaptability, and problem-solving. As the founder and principal agent of Buckhead Computer Service Company and a registered business agent in the State of Georgia, I combine technical skill with business responsibility and professional integrity.
